

Gastransport Nord GmbH statement on data protection

Data protection and data security for customers and users have a high priority for Gastransport Nord GmbH (GTG). The protection of your personal data throughout all of our business processes is of particular importance to us.

This statement on data protection explains which information is collected when you visit our website and how this information is used. The statement does not apply, however, to the websites of other companies that contain a link to the website of GTG, or to websites that are linked to from our website.

Collecting, processing and sharing personal data

When visiting our website, information about your visit such as IP address, pages viewed as well as date and time of your visit will be stored. This data is used for statistical purposes. A personal utilization does not apply.

Moreover, personal data is only stored if you provide us with this voluntarily, e.g. as part of a registration, a survey, a price tender, an online application or to perform a contract. Your data is used for the purpose for which it was collected. Furthermore, GTG processes and uses data within the framework of data protection regulations for market analysis and to inform you about offers from GTG. Data is only used for other purposes if you gave your consent prior to the data being processed.

Your personal data may only be shared with third parties to the extent that this is permitted by law or if you have given your consent.

Use of cookies

GTG uses cookies for some parts of the website in order to ensure excellent customer service, to allow easy access to our products and services and to offer a greater range of services. Cookies are identifiers that are sent to your computer by a web server, in order to identify you for the duration of your visit.

You can configure your browser to let you know whenever sites want to set a cookie, to block cookies or to delete cookies from your hard drive when your browsing session has finished. This will allow you to see when a site is using cookies. We can find out which areas of our website are particularly popular, how our visitors navigate our website and how long they spend in the different areas. This information is analysed for statistical purposes; the individual user remains anonymous.

Security measures

GTG takes extensive technical and operational steps to protect data stored by us about you against abuse, accidental or deliberate manipulation or from being accessed by unauthorised persons. Our security measures are subject to a process of continuous improvement in line with technological developments. Our data protection policy is in accordance with the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG)
